↑ indicates extent of a text element

① largest block under H3 is less than 1/2 KB

AND

② largest block under H2 is less than 4 KB

THEREFORE

H2 headings and above (e.g., H1) are text block boundaries

• Top-level tables & lists are always a single block, regardless of size or content.

• In-line images do not break text blocks (even though they are elements of their own), but are not saved with text.
